

Homework 1

Zachary O'Connor

June 30, 2024

Looking at distances required for cars to stop

Noteworthy point: The distance required by a car to stop goes up quickly as the speed of the car increases.

This means if you are driving faster, you MUST allow for more space to stop